THE '52 REBEL

VOLUME 1

PUBLISHED BY

THE

SENIOR CLASS

OF

MULLENS HIGH SCHOOL

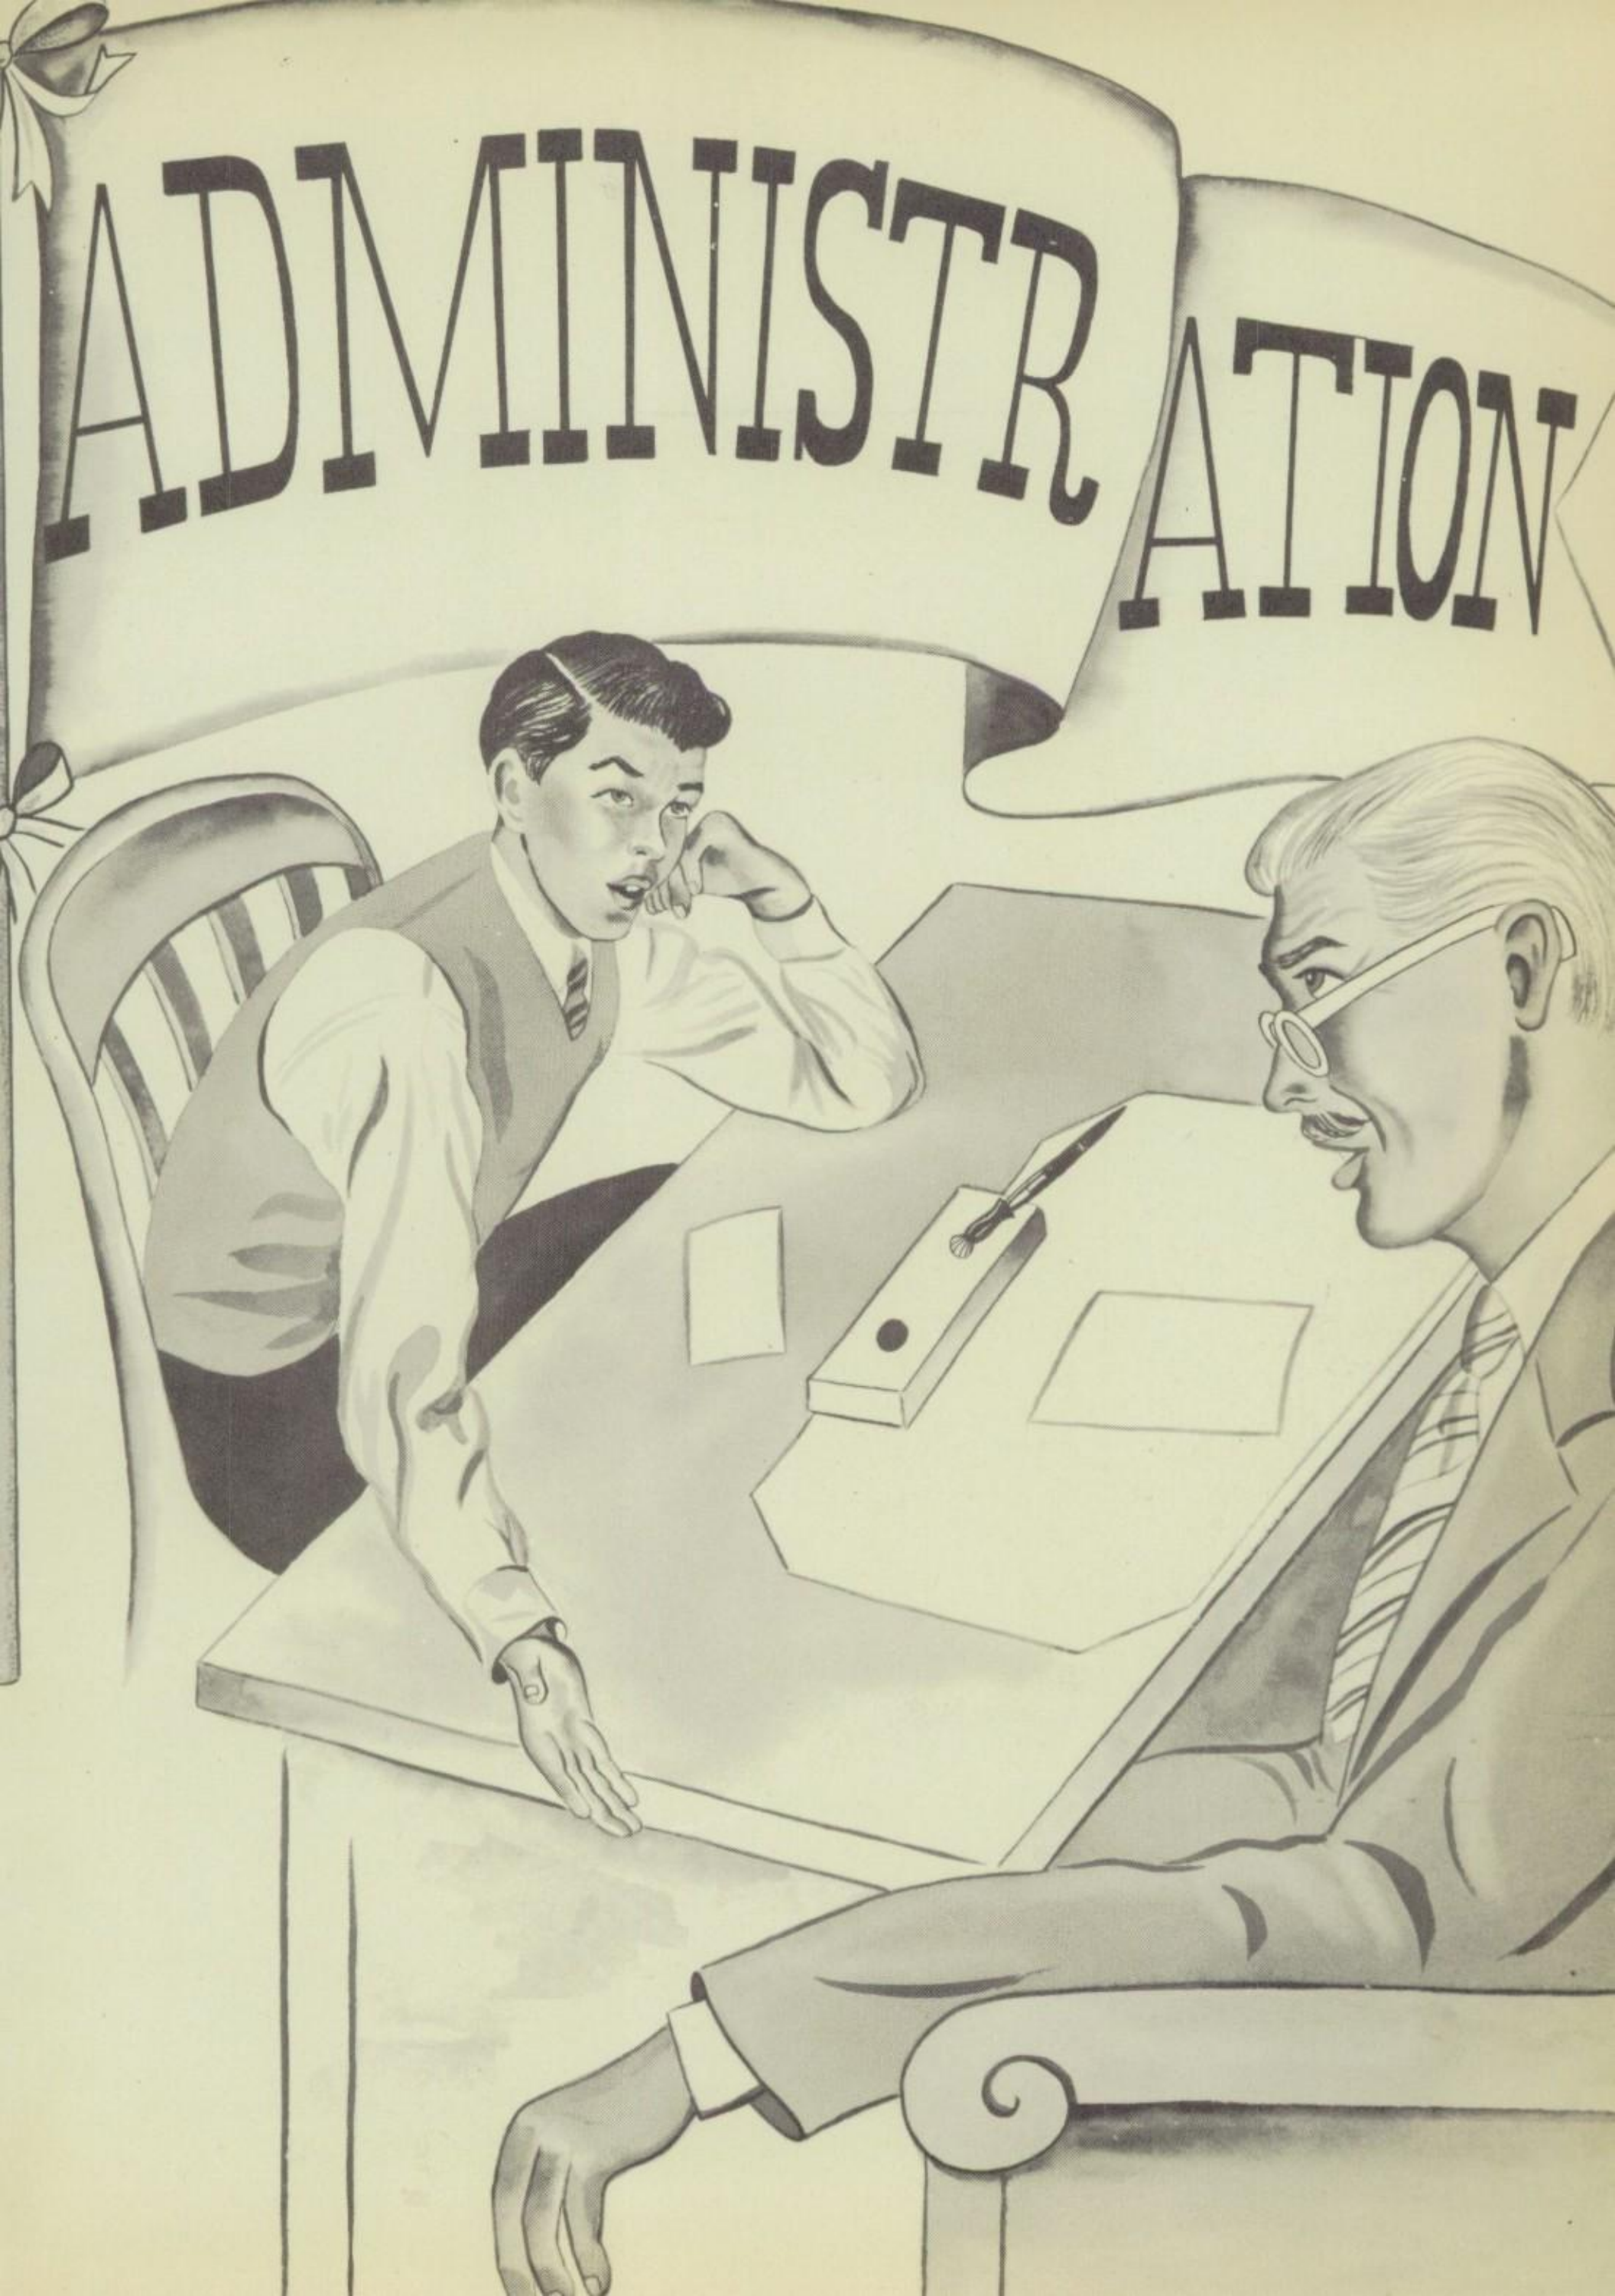
DEDICATION

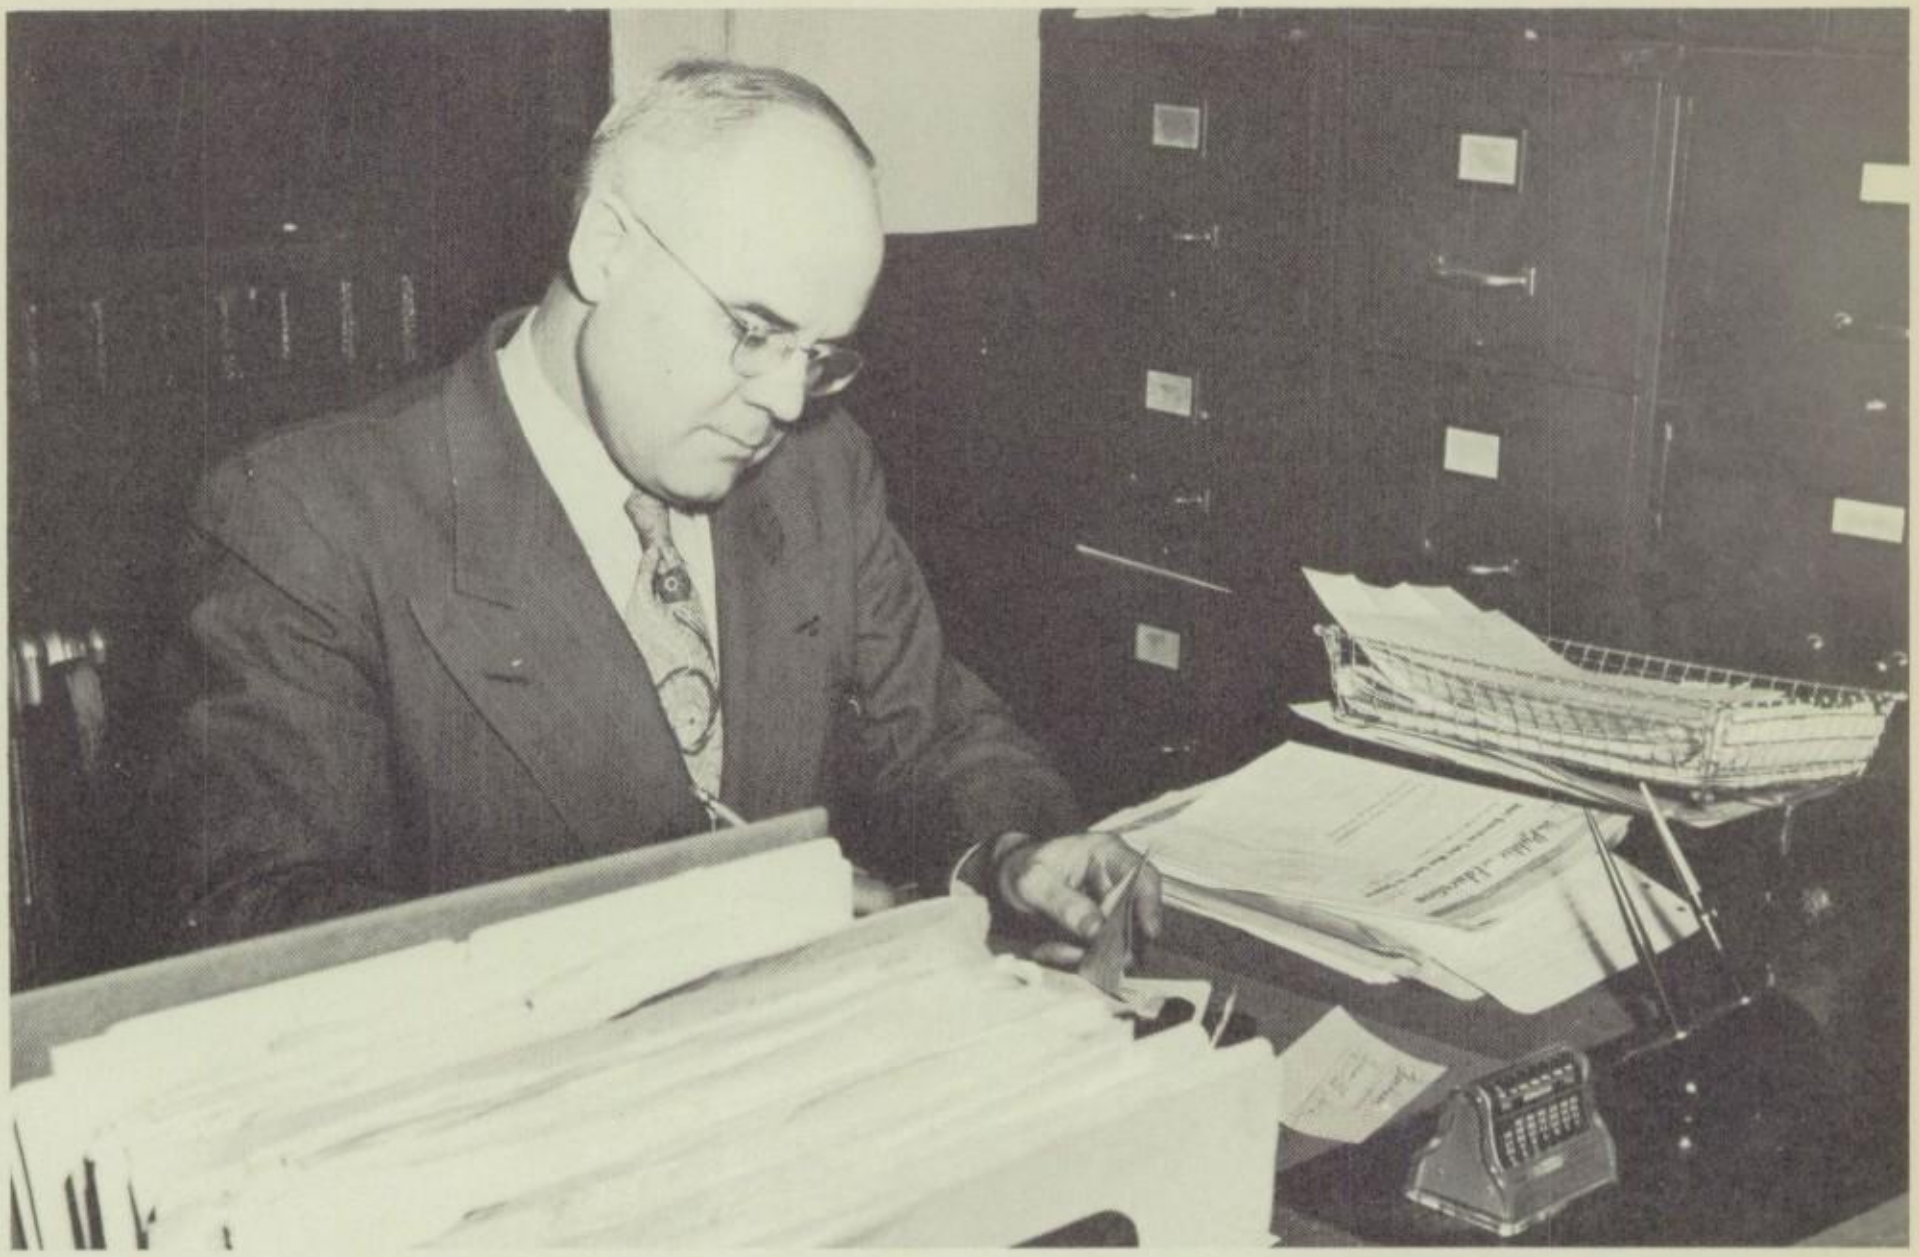
RUTH TOLER O'DELL

We, the Seniors of 1952, deem it an honor and privilege to dedicate The '52 Rebel to Ruth Toler O'Dell, born November 9, 1912, died November 9, 1950.

She was a beloved teacher of Mullens High, whose guidance, personality, ability, and energy endeared her to all those who knew and loved her.

ADMINISTRATION





CHARLES V. STEWART PRINCIPAL

Coming to Mullens High School in March, 1941 to serve as principal, Charles V. Stewart has fulfilled that capacity for eleven years. He attended Concord College, where he earned his Standard Normal Degree in 1927, and then transferred to West Virginia University, where he completed the work for the Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1931. Returning to W.V.U., he received his Master of Arts Degree in 1937.

He has done much to further development and earn respect for Mullens High School. Due to his unfailing efforts, M.H.S. has become one of the most outstanding high schools in Wyoming County. He will long be remembered and admired in the community for his splendid work.

THE STAR GAZER

What does the future hold for our seniors? Only the stars can tell.

For those lucky persons born under the sign of the Ram, Aries, brilliant successes lie ahead.

VICKI COOK and DELORES RHODES are top paid singers on LEAH JUNE HALL'S television show which advertises the famous "Pep up with PEDRI'S POP". As usual, CARL HAGA is on the ball. He's collecting income tax for his favorite uncle.

For those born under the sign of Taurus, the Bull:

DEWAYNE SLUDER and BILL TERRY are co-partners in the popular night-spot "The Hide-Away." Their staff is as follows: Bouncer, GEORGE AKERS; Chief bartender, JACK ROBINETTE; emergency nurse, GLORIA HILL; Hostess, RUBY ADAMS; business manager, BETTY JO HYPES.

Five lucky seniors were born under the sign of Gemini, the Twins.

PAT SHUMATE is president of the Community Parents' Teachers' Association, but which---parents or teacher? DOROTHY BEAN owns an expensive millinery shop. GLENNA PRITCHARD, one of her frequent customers, seems quite able to afford her most lavish creations. REBECCA BARE just bought another new Cadillac. JACK BLEDSOE is her efficient chauffeur.

"Money is the root of all evil, but who cares?" say the fortunate seven under Cancer, the Crab.

BILL MUNDY and PAT MINNICK like the color of that green stuff, so they make their own. It's cheaper that way. Let's hope that FBI women SALLY TOLLIVER and BETTY BLACKWELL don't find out about it! But you may be sure BETTY MEADOWS, DONNA DAVENPORT, and IVA JOYCE ELLISON won't squeal, they like home grown "lettuce" too.

There are some who say that Leo, the Lion, is the ideal sign under which to be born. Did they have a choice?

GREENE'S Grill is a nice place for dinner, at lease nice people think so, MARY JANE DAVIS and FRIEDA McNAMARA for example. BILL REPASS and HARRY HOLLINS disagree. They prefer the less expensive diner of KENNETH ROUP and EARL SWEENEY.

The sign of Virgo, the Virgin, sounds promising.

A cheery fireplace, love and all the comforts of home surround homemaker NORMA BLANKENSHIP but FRANK HERALD and JESSE BLANKENSHIP seem to prefer their bachelor quarters at the club.

The Call of the Carnival brings a gay gypsy life to those born under the sign of Scales, the Libra.

Sagittarus Pisces Leo Cancer Scorpio Aquarius

Scorpio, the Scorpion predicts:

It's opening night in New York for ED BREHM and WANDA POWERS' drama team. Their musical background is provided by NICKY HAYNES and BETTY REPASS, who do a beautiful rendition of "Chopsticks." Will newspaper critic SHIRLEY LEFLER give them a favorable write-up?

Sagittarus, the Archer, must have smiled on the birth of the next quintet.

MAE DOTSON and PATSY REDDEN are quite content to be a fan club of two brilliant star baseball players, JOHN PEARIS and MARSHALL MOORE. BRUNO PEDRI looks disgusted. They must not share his much more profitable interest in the ticker tape of Wall Street.

According to the Great Capricorn:

Congresswoman SALLY PURCHAS will fly to Washington in her private plane piloted by WAYNE WALK, for a conference with Democratic party leader KENNETH COLEMAN. You may be sure Republicans JEAN ANDERSON and EARL SWEENEY are making plans to aid her in all possible ways.

Aquarius, the Waterman, tells of the future happiness on these bright horizons.

DON STATON is a pro football player now, but waterboy PAUL MOONEY decided to let fate have its way. SARAH McNUTT and JUNE COOK must have acquired a habit somewhere. They keep doing Rebel cheers at the queerest times, when NANCY EDWARDS, DORIS DOWELL, and ANNA MAE LAWSON needed backing in the WVU girls' basketball game.

Auguries of the Future as told by Pisces, the Fish:

JAMES McKINNEY leaves BETTY BOYD in charge of his theatre, while he happily accompanies LLOYD HERALD to give our armed forces that extra lift. KITTY MOLER and MARGARET BARTON are helping in the peace efforts, also, by developing their M-B power process for Washington.

Other predictions are in order:

SANDRA STAVROS and LOUISE McKINNEY are interested in animals. They specialize in thoroughbred rabbits. JIM VANOVER and JIM WHITT are also interested in animals; they're big game hunters in Africa. CLYDE CLAY, MATHEW KARNES, and JIM ANDERSON are a successful law firm. Can they win MATHEW KARNES' law suit against CHARLES BOWLING?

And so we leave our glimpse with the future of our seniors. We hope that their future will be as successful as their past.
